In th$_e$ U.K. draft, the nature of offences is not comprehensive to meet India's concerns. There are also differences relating to determination of jurisdiction, extradition of offenders resident in U.K., and safeguards available to the offenders.

(c)l The question of formulating a common acceptable draft will arise only when the basic differences mentioned above are resolved.

Arrest of Shri L. M. Thapar of Thapar Group of Companies

*13. SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA: SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA;

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Shri Lalit Mohan Thapar of Thapar group of companies was arrested on charges of violation of Foreign Exchange Regulations Act;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof and what are the reasons for his subsequent release;

(c) whether Government have already announced the amnesty scheme for F.E.R.A. violators; and

(d) whether the benefit of amnesty schemes is applicable in those cases where the irregularity is detected by the Enforcement Directorate or the benefits will be available only to those who have voluntarily come forward declaring the violations?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRl VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) A statement of alleged violations is attached. (See below). The grant of bail to an arrested person is in the exclusive jurisdiction of Ihe competent court of Law. In the case of Shri Lalit Mohan Thapar, the bail application was opposed by the Directorate of Enforcement (FERA) in view of the offences allegedly committed under the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act and pending investigations. The courts of Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, New Delhi and Additional Sessions Judge, New Delhi had rejected the bail application(s). Subsequently, on further appeal, the Hon'ble High Court, New Delhi had granted the bail on certain conditions.

(c) No, Sir.

(d) In view of (c) above, the question does not arise.
